Not what I was expecting, more of a catalog of funny people and quotes on humor.

By Lisa

I was hoping for more of an informational product, telling about actually crafting humor yourself. To me this appears to be more of a listing of sayings about jokes and humor. It's well written and interesting but it doesn't appear to come off as it's portrayed. For the most part the book is a paragraph about being funny, using someone as an example. Then it's preceded by a quote, after each paragraph. This doesn't allow you to really get into the text, which I find irritating too.

Thank you for sharing your secrets!

By Amazon Customer

Comedy Writing Secrets very much deserves a five-star rating. I have always enjoyed comedy but never felt personally capable of writing my own. After reading this guide, I now have the tools to give it a try. I am so glad I chose this book. The author structured the chapters in such a way that kept my interest all the way through. I was pleasantly surprised by how often I laughed out loud! While comedy writing is a subject that requires particular interest, I think it is fair to assume almost everyone is interested in adding more laughter to their life. Comedy Writing Secrets has given me a roadmap to just that. I recommend this book.

Case in point

By Amazon Customer

This book is very funny and very educational. The author does a fantastic job of informing the readers through examples and scenarios. It sparked my imagination and gave me a new insight into comedic writing that I would never have found otherwise. I really respect the the author's bold approach to writing a guide book on something that many people believe is a natural-born gift, instead of a learnable skill. I feel very much more capable of my skill after this book. Also, the quotes throughout the book kept me interested and were laugh out loud funny. I highly recommend this book.
