Dreams galore

By Amazon Customer

This book opened up a realm of intimacy that I never knew was available in my 30 plus years of being born again! I've had vivid 'God dreams' over the years, but they were few and far between. I took 14 days to read this book and recorded dreams 12 of the days and the other 2 days I had to learn the lesson that if you don't jot down a note or two, you will forget the dream! Before reading this book, I rarely remembered any dreams, So sad! What a wonderful way to open up the realm of hearing God speak!!! Each dream spoke a message to my heart!!! Read this book with expectancy! You won't be disappointed!!!

I would also like to congratulate you and your father

By Kevin Winters

Charity, I would also like to congratulate you and your father, Mark Virkler, on the best book on dreams that I have personally ever read. And I read Herman Riffel's book many years ago, but it pales in comparison to this book. Now that is saying a lot considering Herman's contribution to this subject. My delight in reading your book is based on my reading of just the first five chapters.

One thing that I appreciate most about it is the genuine insight. You definitely did not regurgitate something that you had learned third-hand. This book is fresh and personal insight given from the Father Himself. This book has the "voice of God" on it. I've been studying His voice for years and I recognize His authentic voice in the many different ways He presents Himself and this book is God speaking fresh wisdom. I'm so glad that you are sharing your part. As we have come to understand that we know that scripture says, we see in "part". I believe that God gives every person a part of a puzzle (a piece of understanding) and when a person is willing to share their part with others, the many authentic parts form "a more complete" revelation when brought together. That is what you have done. You have given us "her" part and it is refreshing.

You also did a fantastic job of balancing interpretation with revelation. I've read so many books by authors that thought they could get away with revelation that they could not substantiate biblically. Likewise, I have read many books by "theologians" that thought interpretation without revelation was good. But the Spirit and the Word agree and you definitely brought together sound revelation with clearer biblical interpretation.

I can also feel the sincerity of your relationship with God. I can likewise picture you as He has hidden you in His bosom and held you close through life. I can feel His love for you and I can see that you are like a kid in His presence and just sucks up the joy of being recognized by Him. What a work you have put together. I could feel all of this from just reading this book.

And kudos to your father too. Charity is a testament to the reality that God call families. And she is a testament that God is establishing your work and ensuring that all you have done will be carried forth for generations to come. He is establishing your throne in the area that He has given you to rule. Her book is a testament to your wise and obvious Holy Spirit-led parenting.

Great book. I recommend it to all who are looking to embrace dreaming with God and have just been waiting for a solid biblical work to give you the assurance to do so safely.

I purchased the ecourse from CLUSchoolOfTheSpirit and I greatly enjoy (and benefit from) Charity's lectures

By Vicki Hale

I purchased the ecourse from CLUSchoolOfTheSpirit and I greatly enjoy (and benefit from) Charity's lectures. Her instructional approach enhances her father's core teachings in the previously released "Hear God Through Your Dreams." I look forward to reading more of her books (and taking more of her online courses).
