A sweet beginning to a great series

By Gracie

I read this book last after reading the others. Not what I typically do but it just worked out that way and it was kind of nice. The main characters in this book, Tom and Darcy, were mentioned here and there throughout the other books but not central characters.

I felt like I was finally getting to meet two great people I'd heard a lot about.

This book is very good. Sweet, painful at times, mighty sexy and even funny. While I was more invested in the characters in the other stories and I found those plots more gripping, I did enjoy this one.

First in a great series!

By wendysbookblog

A friend recommended this book to me last week. Started reading it on her kindle at work and when I had to hand it back over without finishing the book, I felt like I was going through withdrawal until I was able to get my hands on my own copy!

This story is about Tom and Darcy, two seniors in college, who embark on a romance that's rocky at times. Ah, I remember those days....younger, with insecurities that make you do foolish things and hurt the ones you love.

You get your happy ever after but it's after a series of plot twists and turns that keep you turning the pages.

Immediately downloaded the second book in the series.

Loved It!!!

By Amazon Prime Air Fan

I loved how this book was about the craziness of college, ups and downs, and life after college with be able to say its okay if you end up choosing a different path than the one you have planned. The storyline just captivated my attention and once I got through the first two pages I just couldn't stop. This book is definitely a good read.
