RED LOVE (A BRITISH BILLIONAIRE ROMANCE, PART 1)

BY KRISTINA WEAVER PDF

Ever since the day I heard Vincent's voice, that crisp English accent, and seen his mesmerizing green eyes, I'd fallen into an obsession that isn't easy to shake.

I've dreamed of him, wanted him. I've spent hours trying to get him onto canvas. There are four in total at the moment that are destined for the trash - because no matter what I do, I just can't get his portrait right.

So imagine my surprise when I met him again and he makes me an offer I couldn't refuse...

"You want me to paint you? Now?"

A small smile curves his mouth, and he nods, patiently.

"Now."

"Naked?"

I croak the question and feel my eyes bug when he simply nods and walks away, pausing at the bathroom door.

By the time he comes out, his hips draped in a low riding towel that does nothing to hide anything, I am sitting calmly, ready and—

"Holy s@%!."

Now I know why my proportions were off. His chest is a lot more muscled than even my lascivious imagination could have dreamed up—and his ass...I know I had never painted his ass, but even if I had, it wouldn't have been accurate.

Sounded intriguing but ends on a cliffhanger

By Marie

I love series, but don't care for serials. Disclosing that there's a cliffhanger would be appreciated.

Looks good

By Beth Crader

So far this story is sounding good. Sissy Bennett , a Texas heiress, wants to be an artist and get successful on her own merits. She meets Vincent, rich British unbelievably sexy man. He hires her to paint him along with a series of landscapes for 6 months. Her roommate is under the influence of a very controlling man who is starving her to the point her hair is falling out. Sissy gets caught up in saving her friend, Vincent goes to China on business and suddenly all Hell breaks loose. So far I don't know much about Vincent but I like him. He is kind and generous and supports her caring for her friend. So far all of these characters are good except for Eric who seems to have lost his mind. Dangerous man once his control over his girlfriend ends.

Good story, but it's a cliffhanger!!

By Jane

I like the characters and it's a hot read; but it's a cliffhanger, which I try to avoid. If you're ok with that, give this book a try.
